SIGNIFICANCE OF THE THEME

We are constantly reminded today, of the importance of the Northwest Ordinance in our lives. When we walk down the broad, shaded, streets of Goshen, when we go to school or church, when we enter public buildings and parks, we remember that these priceless privileges were conserved for us by a mighty scrap of paper.

From all the maze of events of recent and past years, The Crimson staff has chosen the Northwest Ordinance and the territory which it molded as the theme of The Crimson for the year nineteen hundred and thirty-eight, in the hope of making the students of Goshen High School conscious of their opportunities and privileges in this modern Northwest Territory.

DEDICATION

IN HONOR OF THE SESQUI-CENTEN-
NIAL CELEBRATION OF THE ORDI-NANCE OF 1787, WE, THE CLASS OF
1938, DO HEREBY DEDICATE THIS CRIMSON TO THE PRINCIPLES AND
IDEALS PRESERVED FOR OUR GEN-ERATION BY THIS CONSTITUTION.

THE ORDINANCE OF 1787

One hundred and fifty years ago, the last Congress under the Articles of Confederation passed the law providing government of the territory north-west of the Ohio River. This Ordinance of 1787 is probably the most important act passed under the Articles. The statement was made in its fiftieth year that "it approaches as nearly to absolute perfection as anything to be found in the legislation of mankind."

The Ordinance of 1787 had many truly worthy features. It was worked out over several years by the best minds in all the colonies. Those men looked ahead to future expansion of our nation and planned for the treatment of all dependent territories. They gave voice to the ideals that were becoming imbedded into the very foundation of American independence. They provided for such rights as trial by jury, free education, free soil, and free churches. It made provision for territories becoming states with equal rights with the original states; it broke the old custom of primogeniture; it spoke of the sanctity of private contracts, a very new step in the "rights of man."

The importance of the Ordinance of 1787 can hardly be over-emphasized. The clause barring slavery was undoubtedly the deciding factor in the "War Between the States." The force of the Northwest Territory states on the Union side was the thing that won the war. In the field of government of dependent territories, the ordinance was an example to the entire world as well as to the United States in later years. This phase had been called "America's most significant contribution to government." It set forth the principles of law-making as following the "fundamental principles of civil and religious liberty." If these ideas should be followed today, they would provide a way to escape from war, the greatest menace to the continued existence of civilization.

In the Northwest Territory, for whose welfare this great act of legislation was conceived, now lie eleven per cent of our nation's territory, twenty-two per cent of the population, and twenty-four per cent of the wealth. Who can say but that the Ordinance of 1787 played a large part in building the once wilderness to the prosperous section it is today?

ADMINISTRATION

MORT L. WALTER

The extent of influence the Ordinance of 1788 has had on the development of the American school system is difficult to determine, but we can safely conclude that the growth and development would have been different had this ordinance and its subsequent developments been unratified by the States.

The land survey plan as finally approved by Congress for this territory provided for the subdivision of the land into townships and for the subdivision of these in turn into thirty-six squares or sections. The township thus created has become generally the unit of school control.

Another action that laid the foundation for the acquisition of state school funds and properties was the outgrowth of a real estate deal between Ohio Company of Associates and Congress in the disposition of Northwest Territory land. This resulted in the reservation of Section 16 in every township for schools. This action was followed by most states of the middle west, either by statute or by state constitution.

As time elapsed and the several divisions of the Northwest Territory developed into states, these sections of state school lands increased in value, and when sold created an ever increasing school fund of which only the interest could be used for school maintenance. This necessitated the creation of a state office, an officer whose duty it was to superintend the investment of these school funds, and out of this office grew the office of state superintendent of schools.

Thus, directly or indirectly, the Ordinance of 1787 has influenced the development of public schools by determining a unit of school control, by creating the Congressional State School Fund for the support of public schools, and by creating and developing the office of state superintendent of schools.

HAROLD H. BECHTEL

Until recently a belief has prevailed that although universal training in the three R's and patriotism constituted a legitimate goal to be achieved as quickly as possible, secondary education need be acquired by no more than a portion of the citizens—those destined to be leaders. But a prominent statesman has lately pointed out the necessity in America for the education of the entire citizenry beyond the level which might suffice in nondemocratic societies. He warns us that literacy is not enough, because the leadership of the country must be drawn from the entire population. The often quoted statement of President Madison that democracy without education is a prologue either to farce or tragedy, or both, is typical of the beliefs, held by men of vision in national affairs from Franklin on, concerning the implications of democracy is that those who govern are responsible to the electorate. This implies much more than literacy or an elementary education.

With the increased complexity which comes as a result of the evolution of modern economic, political and international structures and functions, the need for education has been correspondingly increased. Domestic and international interdependence have multiplied the number and complexity of political issues and problems. The increased influence of propaganda by countless groups, each with its own selfish point of view, makes continuous demands upon popular education in terms of skills and habits in clear and defensive reasoning. If every citizen were to have the equivalent of a high school education emphasizing these outcomes, he would possess but a minimum preparation for modern economic and political conditions and influences operating under a democratic form of government. The threat to safety, to prosperity and security that lies in a democracy without adequate universal education can be seen without unusual powers of insight.

SCHOOL BOARD

The Goshen City School Board is the governing body of that large organization called the Goshen City Schools. The Board and our superintendent, O. L. Walter, work together for the advancement of our school system.

Experience in financial matters is essential and required of our board members, but even more important is an interest in the boy and girl of Goshen—the citizens of tomorrow.

Our present board is especially well fitted for this particular work, and has very efficiently managed the educational affairs of the past year.

TO OUR SPONSORS AND FACULTY

To Miss Doris Beaman and Mr. Ralph Beck, our sponsors, and to the many other members of the faculty who have guided us through the past four years, we, the Class of 1938, express with utmost sincerity our deepest thanks and gratitude.

WESTWARD HO!

JOAQUIN MILLER

The call to new worlds in the West seems to be as old as the race; and always the sturdy spirit of adventurers has answered that call. Valiantly they faced the unknown, leaving behind them all luxuries, and fought with plowshares to win a new kingdom for us. Yet in the march of Time, these silent pioneers have become but ghosts and memories.

What strength! what strife! what rude unrest!
What shocks! what self-shaped armies met!
A mighty nation moving west,
With all its steely sinews set
Against the living forests. Hear
The shouts, the shots of pioneer,
The rended forest, rolling wheels,
As if some half-check'd army reels,
Recoils, redoubles, comes again,
Loud sounding like a hurricane.

O bearded, stalwart, westmost men,
So tower-like, so Gothic built!
A kingdom won without the guilt
Of studied battle, that hath been
Your blood's inheritance . . . Your heirs
Know not your tombs: the great plowshares
Cleave softly through the mellow loam
Where you have made eternal home,
And set no sign. Your epitaphs
Are writ in furrows Beauty laughs
While through the green ways wandering
Beside her love, slow gathering
White starry-hearted May-time blooms
Above your lowly level'd tombs;
And then below the spotted sky
She stops, she leans, she wonders why
The ground is heaved and broken so,
And why the grasses darker grow
And droop the trail like wounded wing.

Yea, Time, the grand old harvester,
Has gathered you from wood and plain,
We call to you again, again;
The rush and rumble of the car
Comes back in answer. Deep and wide
The wheels of progress have passed on;
The silent pioneer is gone.
His ghost is moving down the trees,
And now we push the memories
Of bluff, bold men who dared and died
In foremost battle, quite aside.

6. The debate work has won the attention of several of the members.
7. There are "hosts" of Sunshine workers.
8. We have a leader of "CHEER".
9. The Junior play proved to be a success. It was "The Late Christopher Bean."

THE CLASS OF 1940

Two hundred twelve freshmen who composed the Class of '40 presented themselves last September, 1937, for four years of formal education at G. H. S.

We did not elect our officers until the second semester of last year. They were: president, Abraham Hoogenboom; vice-president, George Pestow; secretary, Jeanne McPherson; and treasurer, Forrest Stoll. Our sponsors were Miss Brooks and Mr. Kintigh.

George Pestow was elected president at the beginning of the sophomore year; Rex Swank, vice-president; David Butler, secretary; and Paul Seybert, treasurer. Later Junior Shelton was elected secretary to fill the vacancy made by David Butler's moving away.

Our girls are well represented in the Sunshine Society, the Home Economics Club, and especially in the G. A. A. They have one of the best class teams in school.

A large number of sophomore boys are participating in athletic activities. Earl Arnold, Ralph Borden, Merritt Fausnaugh, and Robert Claybaugh are good prospects for football. Abe Hoogenboom, Earl Arnold, and Ralph Borden played on the second team this year. Many sophomore boys played on the second squad.

Jeanne McPherson led the entire student body in scholarship for the first semester.

We got off to a good start and have more money in our treasury than any sophomore class has had for a long time, which is something of which we are very proud.

THE CLASS OF 1941

Last September (seems ages ago, doesn't it?) one hundred and ninety of us, the freshmen of Goshen High School, started wandering shyly about the building. Since that time we have taken great strides toward the ultimate victory.

At the beginning of the second semester we organized as a class. Our officers are: president, Arthur Weaver; vice-president, Bob Priser; secretary, Evelyn Stark; treasurer, Mary Lou Disosway; sergeants-at-arms, Bill Stose and Dick Fancil. We are fortunate in having Miss Peckinpaugh and Mr. French for our sponsors.

In the music department there are several talented freshmen. We have approximately thirteen members in the band, thirteen in the orchestra, and sixteen in the glee club.

The freshmen took the lead in the number of representatives on the school honor roll. Because of a tie for first place both Ruth Eleanor Mendenhall and Bill Zentz were awarded freshman honor sweaters.

In both basketball and football our boys have proved their ability. Some of the outstanding boys in these activities are Bill Swain, Bob Priser, Bill Stose, Ted Bullock, Phil Bickel and Junior Schnobelen. The girls are also active in athletics, having a large number enrolled in their G. A. A.

The organized school clubs have been loyally supported by the freshmen, having members in Hi-Y, officers and members in Science Club, and about forty girls in Sunshine Society with Julia Shrock the secretary of the society. There are also several freshmen in the Home Economics Club, with Erdene Phillips as secretary.

We, the Class of '41, are headed for three more successful years.

BAND

Since this is "Band Year" again, the members of the band are working towards the contests. By "Band Year" is meant that a National Band Contest is being held this year and if the band should win first place in Class B at the state, it would be eligible for the National Contest. No only do the band and orchestra get to play in keen competition at the contest, but they also have plenty of time to enjoy themselves.

The band has performed well at both the football and basketball games this year. The Merchants' Council of Goshen presented the band with a bell lyre in reward for their good work. The lyre is being used very effectively with the band. There are now plans to purchase another one next fall to be used with this one.

The Music Parents' Club, organized two years ago, has always played an important part in band activities. One of the many things they have sponsored this year was the "Band Benefit" basketball game between Goshen High School and Young America. This club was the responsible force that secured new band uniforms two years ago and sent the orchestra to the National Contest at Columbus, Ohio, last year.

ORCHESTRA

As a climax to a year of intensive practice and training the Goshen High School Orchestra, directed by Mr. Brinklow, assisted by Miss Vawter, traveled to the National Orchestra Contest at Columbus, Ohio, and carried off a plaque and honors designating them as one of the second best orchestras in Class B division.

As in past years, the orchestra did a splendid piece of work in furnishing the music for the junior and senior plays. At the present time, many hours are being devoted to hard work and practice. Every available moment of time is being used, so that these students will be in fine shape for the contests.

The outstanding event of the year was the district contest—Goshen being the “host” city—April 22-23. Goshen won again the honor of going to the state, at Huntington, May 6-7. Here both band and orchestra competed with others in class “B” and won many honors.

GLEE CLUB

The Goshen High School Glee Club has attained an excellent reputation for its splendid work. Under the capable direction of Mr. Brinklow, the club has progressed greatly during the past few years.

This year portfolios in which to keep sheet music and which were needed badly were purchased for the members of the club. These were greatly appreciated by all and have proved to be quite valuable.

There are approximately forty members in the organization. At Christmas time the club gave a cantata for the entire student body and guests. The club sang for the Music Parents Association and for the Rotary Club on Ladies' Night. These are only a few of the many splendid programs they gave, during 1937-38.

HOME ECONOMICS

This year the Home Economics Club has approximately seventy members. The officers for the past year have been: President, Arlene Phillips; Vice-president, Janice Berkey; Treasurer, Mona Jane Brown; Secretary, Erdene Phillips; and song leader, Catherine Zook.

The club is organized to promote an interest in the science of homemaking. The programs all follow out this plan. One of the many interesting programs was a talk on "Knitting" by Mrs. McCumsey from the Yarn Shop. For a Halloween party the club had a "kid party" in the cafeteria.

A point system was started this year under the leadership of Helen Baker, and has been very successful.

Under the capable sponsorship of Miss Wright and Miss Peckinpugh, the club has progressed rapidly.

FORUM CLUB

The Forum Club was organized by the Public Speaking Department for the purpose of stimulating interest and student participation in forensics.

The club meets every two weeks at the homes of the various members. The meetings consist of speeches, discussions, games, and contests. The club also finances the debate teams on their trips to Purdue and the various conference debates.

Parties are held every year. This year on December 20, a Christmas party was held in the cafeteria.

Each year in May the club sponsors an oratorical contest in the auditorium before the members of the student body and guests. The speeches are judged by appointed judges and prizes, consisting of a silver cup which is the first prize, a silver medal which is second, and a bronze medal for third, are given. These were won by Richard Weaver, Bill Charnley, and Peg Gill.

SCRIBBLERS CLUB

The Scribblers Club represents the literary club of G. H. S. In order to become a member of this club, one must hand in a manuscript of one's own composition.

The meetings are held the first and third Thursday of every month, at the home of Miss Galentine, the sponsor, or in the home of one of the members. Each month the members are required to turn in one manuscript. These are read at the various meetings, and are followed with games and refreshments.

Several parties are held each year. The outstanding event this year was the Christmas party given December 16 in the cafeteria. The club was also fortunate enough to get Captain Alex Clark, who has been captain of a boat on the Great Lakes for many years, as a guest speaker during the year. In the spring a picnic is always held at the lake.

The purpose of the Scribblers club is to give the literary minded students of the Goshen High School a chance for some "free" writing.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY

The members of the Sunshine Society have been busy "tilling the soil of their Garden of Sunshine" this year. The officers were Jean Harter, president; Genevieve Warner, vice-president; Julia Schrock, secretary; Elizabeth Hamm, treasurer; and Miss Wahl, sponsor. The honorary group consisted of Genevieve Warner, Elizabeth Hamm, Sonia Mae Love, Dorothy Coyle, Martha Ann Buck, Eloise Fleck, Esther Hartzler, Phyllis Zollinger, Betty Markham, Ruby Ropp, Mary Clason, Jane Ketring, Jean Kesler, and Magdalene Brosy.

The big project of the year was to start a fund to buy an electric organ for the school. Old members regained their membership by earning fifty cents for the fund. New members, after securing seventy-five points, were installed at a supper and candle light service in October. On October 30, a group of seventy girls attended the District Convention in Akron, Indiana.

Members of the Sunshine Society arranged an Armistice program for the entire student body and guests on November 11.

Activities have been numerous and varied this year. At Christmas time the annual holly wreath contest was held. Jean Harter, Magdalene Brosy, Phyllis Zollinger, and Eloise Fleck were awarded season tickets to the basketball tournament, for selling the most wreaths.

In February the Sunshine girls, with the Alumni organization, sponsored a donkey basketball game. For the sectional tournament "pep session" the girls sponsored a very fine program in March.

This splendid work accomplished each year by the Sunshine Society is inspired by the loyal and helpful sponsor, Miss Wahl.

THE AUTO-MECHANICS

The Auto-Mechanics department was one of the new departments instigated with the new building. This department now has grown to great importance in the school as one of the foremost technical courses G. H. S. has to offer.

The boys spend three hours in shop work and one in related study each day. There is also a summer course given to a limited number. They must be able to take down and put together, as well as know the names of the parts of an automobile.

Those who show exceptional skill receive a certificate from the school board, superintendent, and principal. This helps them find employment. All boys are decked out this year in shop suits with a bright "G. H. S." on the back.

The Auto Department has provided employment for boys in the automobile work in a number of other states and a good number are locally placed. Generally there are more places for them than boys.

The G. H. S. laboratory is well furnished with equipment: motors, axles, transmissions and electrical units, and operates under the Smith Hughes Act.

THE HEALTH COUNCIL

There are twelve members in the Health Council, three of whom are seniors: Caryl Umble, June Kintigh, and Alys Salisbury.

Two members of the council sell apples every night after school. This is to promote a "fruit eating campaign."

The main purpose of this organization is to impress upon the minds of students the importance of good health, and to create an interest in everyday "Health Habits".

A few weeks before Christmas the members of the council, led by their sponsor, Miss Nixon, sold Christmas Seals with which they aided tuberculosis sanatoriums throughout the United States. During the campaign a play was given by the Dramatics class, entitled "The History of Tuberculosis".

In May, the annual poster contest was held and prizes were award for the best "Good Health Poster."

CHEMISTRY CLUB

The Chemistry Club of Goshen High has had perhaps one of the most glorious pasts of any club in the school, but now seems to be suffering a short relapse, just as some other clubs have experienced. Its officers are having trouble getting together and planning interesting programs. To quote Mr. Welty, the club's sponsor, "very little was accomplished by the club this year as to programs".

At a special meeting called for the purpose, the club voted to pay for the new trophy case, on the left side of the main entrance to G. H. S., thus leaving a permanent gift and remembrance. The club's acting treasurer is working hard to replenish the club's depleted funds by collecting dues. In this way it is hoped that a substantial down-payment can be made on the trophy case by the Chemistry Club of '37-'38.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club, which was started this year, has taken the place of the Physics Club. The club is open to all students interested in science.

Club officers for this year are: President, Fritz Bigler; vice-president, Charles Bryner; secretary, Loralyn Fountain; and treasurer, Ruth Eleanor Mendenhall. Mr. Beck is its very capable sponsor.

The meetings are held at school and during the past year there have been many interesting ones, one of which was a talk given by Doctor Bender from Goshen College on "How to Keep Air Minded." The main party of the year was a pot-luck supper at school, on January 27, 1938. All reported a very good time.

HI-Y '37-'38

The Hi-Y is a nation wide Christian organization for secondary schools, first started in 1889. Today there are more than 1,600 Hi-Y clubs throughout the world with a membership of over 50,000 young men.

The local chapter was started in February, 1924, after four boys, Russel Rathka, Albert Gill, Walter Smoker, and Richard Elliott had been sent to Michigan City by the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs to the large Hi-Y conference. After a year's work the club numbered 25 boys as its members.

For several years prior to 1937-38, interest in the club has lagged. In the fall of '37, however, the local group underwent almost complete reorganization and its present members are practically all juniors. It is the hope of all that this "young blood" can bring the club back to its former high standard and that all members will live up to the purpose of the club: "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character."

The following members are in good standing:

FOOTBALL 1937

Goshen vs. Garrett

Garrett came with a strong team and were beaten only after a hard fight. Goshen scored first with Miltenberger smashing over for the score. Garrett came back and scored after a straight march down the field.

Then Goshen, throwing passes and running ends, marched down the field late in the final quarter with Fryman finally going over for the score. Garrett tried hard to get back in the ball game but an intercepted pass stopped their drive.

Goshen vs. Wabash

0 25

Three of Goshen's regulars were out of this game due to skipping school, which lowered the morale of the team considerably.

In a game which Wabash won easily, Goshen had a big letdown after a good start a week before and never threatened the Wabash goal line.

Wabash had a fine team and easily outclassed the Red Menace, running over the Goshen team for four touchdowns and an extra point.

Goshen vs. North Side (Ft. Wayne)

0 27

Goshen ran up against an exceedingly strong team in this North Side team which did not lose a game all season and had one man placed on the all-state team.

North Side scored once from the five yard line and three times on long runs. In the opening play of the game North Side back ran sixty-seven yards for a touchdown but the play was called back because of a penalty.

Goshen vs. Michigan City
0 25

In this game with Michigan City, which was also the first conference game for both schools, Goshen was outweighed almost 35 pounds to the man, but even with this disadvantage the Red Menace outplayed the Michigan City team the whole last half and had the "big boys" plenty bruised before they went home.

In this game Goshen would have broken their scoreless string except for the timer's gun which ended the half with the ball on Michigan City's two yard line in Goshen's possession. As it was Michigan City held them away from their goal line although Goshen outplayed them in the last half.

Goshen vs. Mishawaka
6 19

In this game although the Mishawaka team was pretty near our size there were several players on their team who were playing their last game because of the age limit of twenty years.

It was in this game that Goshen also broke their scoreless streak by scoring a touchdown and just missing another. Mishawaka scored three times, once on a pass and twice on smashes through the line. Their last touchdown came just as the gun was about to go off after having marched down the field on straight plunges by their fullback who was playing his last game in his high school career.

Goshen vs. Riley (South Bend)
6 43

This game, played at School Field in South Bend, was disastrous from Goshen's viewpoint but their face was saved from a whitewash when Ray Miller caught a pass and ran over for a touchdown with about five minutes left to play.

Riley scored almost at will, going over the Goshen goal line six times and a safety. Their plays were off tackle smashes with four man interference. One play, good for forty-five yards and a touchdown started out as a smash off tackle and had a lateral tacked on to it.

Goshen vs. LaPorte
13 26

This game was a fight to see which team would leave the cellar of the conference and was also a fight between schools of a more even size.

LaPorte scored first on a march down the field with Schmidt running the ends and smashing the line finally for a touchdown.

Goshen came back, however, and marched down the field with Fryman finally catching a pass and going over for a touchdown. Miltenberger kicked the extra point and Goshen led for a little while.

Goshen kicked to LaPorte who received and marched down the field for a touchdown and extra point. Again Goshen came back and scored on a pass to Fryman which tied the game up at half time, 13-13.

In the last half LaPorte proved too much for Goshen and scored twice more to sew up the game. In the closing minutes of play a long pass by Goshen was intercepted to end their final threat.

Goshen vs. Central (South Bend)
0 19

Goshen was defeated in this game largely because of three long runs made possible by strong reverse plays.

Miltenberger's punting was an outstanding feature of the game along with the Goshen team's goal line stands. In the last two minutes of play Central drove down to the four yard line and when the gun went off they still had a yard to go and more downs.

Goshen vs. Elkhart
0 44

This game was just as bad as last year's game, the game ending in favor of Elkhart 44-0. Goshen made only one scoring threat, but the Elkhart varsity was put back in the game to stop this threat and they did it thoroughly.

Willie Hansborough of Elkhart was the individual star of the game. Besides being good on offense he was Elkhart's best man of defense. He intercepted a pass for Elkhart's last touchdown.

Goshen vs. Niles

Goshen's second victory of the season was largely due to superior line play. Goshen scored on a pass from Miltenberger to Bullock who ran down the side lines for a score. The try for extra point was no good.

Goshen scored again on a blocked punt which went into the end zone for a safety.

Miltenberger's line smashing at the start of the half carried the Redskins to the five yard line, where a fumble was recovered by Niles who immediately kicked out of danger.

Fryman scored on a pass from Miltenberger good for about 35 yards and a touchdown, which closed the scoring for the year.

BASKETBALL

First row—Van Winkle, Borden, Higgins, Kramer, Arnold.

Second row—Herring, Kelly, Franklin, Wohlford, Clason, Hoogenboom, Miltenberger.

Third row—Billier, Martin, Yoder, A. Hoogenboom, Rieth, Shelton.

Fourth row—Everett, Snobarger, Mr. Byers.

BASKETBALL

New Paris vs. Goshen

24 26

This game opened the hardwood season for the Redskins and was only the second game for the New Paris team. It was a hard fought game from start to finish with the Redskins finally coming out on top by a score of 26 to 24. Clason was high point man.

Warsaw vs. Goshen

23 22

This game, played at the Warsaw gym, was a see-saw game from start to finish with Warsaw coming from behind to win 23 to 22. Warsaw has a team of veterans and should go far, both in regular season competition and in the tourney.

Hyde Park of Chicago vs. Goshen

24 31

Hyde Park of Chicago brought down a good, fast, hard-playing team which brought about another hard fought game, with Goshen finally coming out on top 31 to 24. This game was marked by "rough playing" on both sides as was evident by the number of fouls called.

Mishawaka vs. Goshen

This game, played at home, was a close battle all the way, with Mikuluk keeping Mishawaka in the running with several long shots from the center of the floor. The game was a hard one with the Redskins finally pulling away to win 29 to 26. Clason led the Redskins with two baskets and nine free throws.

Elkhart vs. Goshen

This game was a complete turnabout of the Redskins after playing a bang-up game against the Maroons the night before. They completely fell apart before the Blazers' superior rebounding and Elkhart won 27 to 7.

Nappanee vs. Goshen

28                      30

This game started out like the Elkhart game, the score at half time being 17 to 7 in favor of Nappanee. But as the second half started it became evident that it was not to be a repetition of the Elkhart game which ended so disastrously. With a great last quarter rally Goshen pulled ahead to win 30 to 28.

Washington of South Bend vs. Goshen

25                      21

In this game Goshen partly redeemed themselves by playing a fairly good game against good competition. Goshen was not out of the running until the last few seconds when a free throw put Washington in the lead which they held until the final gun cracked, with the score 25 to 21. This was our first game with them and they will be worthy opponents in future years.

Michigan City vs. Goshen

21                      43

On News Year's Day the "Prison City" team came down to get the Redskins' scalp but they went home with only their own scalp, Goshen having shown both power and drive to win easily 43 to 21.

LaPorte vs. Goshen

38                      28

The Redskins traveled to LaPorte to try and get their sixth scalp, but came back with their fourth defeat. This game was nothing to cry over, as the team lost to was one of the most powerful teams in the state and playing on their own floor they had a big advantage. Goshen led up until the last quarter got under way. It was in this quarter that LaPorte scored 14 points. LaPorte won 38 to 28. Clason and Herring led the losers with 14 and 12 points. Salek and Lubber were outstanding for the winners.

Bristol vs. Goshen

15                      43

Bristol came to Goshen determined to win at least one game from the big three of the county, but went home badly beaten, 43 to 15. Clason again led the Redskins, but this time to victory.

Central (South Bend) vs. Goshen

27                      21

Goshen traveled to Central determined to overcome their foreign floor jinx, having won only one of their games away from home, but luck was not with them and once more they were defeated, but not badly, the score being Central 27, Goshen 21.

Nappanee vs. Goshen

26

Nappanee Bulldogs came over not only to avenge an early season defeat but also to defeat their hard luck that had been dogging them through the season.

The game started off fast and furiously with Goshen pulling away to lead at half time 13 to 11. Nappanee came back and in a last quarter rally tied up the game and went ahead, but Herring, taking the ball off for Goshen, tied up the game as the gun went off, 24 to 24. In the overtime the Bulldogs missed three straight shots and Goshen, finally getting the ball, broke down the floor and Herring was fouled. He made the free throw good to give Goshen a one point lead which they held until the gun went off.

Young America vs. Goshen

29

This game was played for the benefit of the band it was a loosely played contest with the game finally going to Goshen, 29 to 19.

This team was coached by Don Yoder, '31, an old member of one of "Hermie's" past teams. Dean Beck was the outstanding player for the Young America team.

Riley (South Bend) vs. Goshen

26

24

Once again Goshen tried to overcome their foreign floor jinx but to no avail, although they were leading 24 to 23 with only a short time to go. Good was put into the game for Riley and he immediately went to work to win the game for them, 26 to 24.

Wakarusa vs. Goshen

27

24

This game was played at the Nappanee gym against Wakarusa. It was a hard, fast game with Goshen behind at most stages in the game, but as the game ended the score was knotted up 24 to 24. In the overtime Wakarusa scored once from the free throw line and once from the field to win 27 to 24.

South Side (Ft. Wayne) vs. Goshen

31

South Side came here with the reputation of being one of the best teams in the state and it lived up to its reputation, but for once Goshen played the brand of ball they were capable of playing and threw a scare into the Archers. It was a slam-bang type of basketball with the score being tied up seven times. Just before the third quarter ended they ran the score up to 27 to 22. Goshen wasn't done yet, however, and they pulled up within three points and stayed there until the game ended 34 to 31.

Elkhart vs. Goshen

21                      19

This game was played before a capacity crowd of 2,300 people. It was a crucial game for Elkhart and there were many supporters from Elkhart over for the game. Goshen was behind at the end of the first quarter 6 to 4. The half ended in the Blazers' favor 14 to 9. This gap was immediately widened to 16 to 9, but then Goshen started to close the gap, the score at the end of the third quarter being 16 to 12. Then the game began to get close with Herring closing the gap part way, but Elkhart had enough to stay ahead and the final score was Elkhart 21 and Goshen 19. Herring led the Redskins with 8 points while Patanelli and Le Fevre led the Blue Blazers with 8 and 7 points respectively.

Lew Wallace vs. Goshen

37                      42

This is the first game Goshen has played against this team in a long time. It was a slow first half but the game speeded up from there on and the score mounted very rapidly. At one time the Redskins held a ten point advantage but their lead was cut to five points. They did hold this lead till the end, the final score being 42 to 37. Herring was outstanding for the locals but Carroll of Lew Wallace led with 8 baskets.

Columbia City vs. Goshen

39                      26

This was another of the new games in this year's schedule, but did not turn out as well as the others did. Goshen lost 39 to 26. Frahle led the winners with six baskets, getting five of them the first half.

This game ended the season for Goshen with a record of ten wins and eleven losses.

The team next year will be without a Clason but will have some fairly good material and should win plenty of ball games before the year is through. The returning players will be Kelly, Wohlford, Cramer, Shelton, Martin, Biller, Yoder, Hoogenboom, Arnold, and several members up from the second squad, such as "Friday" Bechtel.

JUNIOR MILLER

THE SECTIONAL TOURNEY

This tourney was a success from the financial standpoint but from the Redskins' standpoint it was not so good. The Redskins lost out in the semi-finals.

The Redskins started out strong, beating the Bristol Pirates 32 to 26. Hoogenboom turned in perhaps his best game of the year.

In the second game Goshen played Nappanee for the third time this year and beat them 30 to 24. This game was see-saw until Clason opened up in the last few minutes of the game to shoot Goshen out into the lead which they managed to hold until the final gun.

It was in this semi-final game that Goshen was the "goat" of an unfortunate incident. With a minute to go Goshen was ahead of Wakarusa 25 to 24. John Doering was fouled and made his two free throws, making the score 26 to 25 in favor of Wakarusa. Fouling Clason made four for Doering but he did not leave the floor. Even after Clason made his free throw to tie up the game, Doering was still playing and was fouled once more. He made his two free throws to win for Wakarusa 28 to 26.

The Girls' Athletic Association was first known as The Outing Club, but was changed to the G. A. A. in 1930. This organization is for all girls interested in basketball, volleyball, hiking, etc.

An event that is looked forward to each Spring is Play Day. Ten girls are selected and sent to a neighboring city to take part in sports with other girls from all over the state.

At the end of each year the girls who have earned 1000 points receive a sweater. Those with 800 points, a letter, and those with 500 points a monogram. A senior banquet is held and the awards are presented at that time by our sponsor. At this time too, the officers for the next year are announced and the senior girls are presented with a gift.

Initiation was held in October this year, and twenty girls were accepted as members.

The officers for the past year have been:

June Kintigh	President
Arlene Philips	Vice-president
Margaret Detwiler	Secretary
Dorothy Shelton	Treasurer
Mary Katherine Logan	Recorder

The girls who were chosen for the basketball varsity are:

"SENIORS"

Seniors are those beings who have survived four (or five) hectic years of high school regulations without flinching. It is a gala time for Goshen High School when the graduation arrives. The seniors are furnished with uncomfortable robes at two dollars a throw, and treated to a tiresome Commencement service, for the benefit of their parents. The presentation of the diplomas follows, after which Goshen High School washes its hands of the matter, and the seniors are branded "outcasts."

Being a senior is very pathetic. Just below the seniors are the juniors, waiting for their opportunity to step into power, and just outside is the world, waiting to put the "youngsters" through the ropes.

The senior's only solace is his activity record in the "Crimson". In it he attempts to condense all the activities in which he has indulged (excepting certain ones which would not look nice in print). Senior records are useless things, but so are seniors. The most pathetic person in the world is the senior who tries to make his record at least an inch long, and then finds that another and greater senior has omitted everything in a noble gesture towards modesty.

—ALBERT "CUB" KOSNOFF, '38.

YOU

Why do I ask the dear God to bless you?
Because I love you.
Why do I fear lest some harm befall you?
Because I love you.
None else can ever take your place.
And yet, should you love someone other than me;
I would not begrudge you that love.
For, though it would surely break my heart,
I'd bravely smile to hide it,
Hoping that you would never know
Lest it dim your new found cherished joy.
You see—I love you!

—BETTY FIELD.

BAD GIRL

Bad little morning-star, just getting in
Don't you know that it's nearly dawn?
Poor Mother Moon is still waiting up.
Where have you been?
Who took you there?

—GENEVIEVE WARNER.

MOTHER

God made you, beloved, adored queen of the home.
From threads of moonbeams he spun the halo that is your hair,
From brown velvet he cut your eyes, soft and warm and comfortable,
From white marble he molded your hands, cool and soothing and restful.

But his finishing touch was hidden from human eyes.
For with the beauty of spring, the gentleness of angel fingers,
The serenity of a midnight sky, the pureness of driven snow,
And the love and understanding of himself—

He created your soul,
A lovely shimmering thing of light,
By far your most priceless possession.

—MAXINE THOMPSON.

THE BRIDGE

Silver shafts, bare and sharp
Against the clear blue
Of the evening sky,
A network of steel
Reaching upward;
A plea to the gods
For mercy.

—JANE POMEROY.

MY DEAR

My dear, you are wonderful,
Simply divine.
Your bright personality
Sparkles like wine.
You're witty; you're charming.
I wish you were mine.

My dear, when I see you
My heart starts to cheer.
I tremble and shake
When I feel you are near
Even though it seems futile—
I love you, my dear.

—MITZI.

THINGS TO LOVE

The quiet stillness of the evening,
Apple blossoms that drift
Down upon a pool of gold,
A speck of bird
High in the intense blue of the sky,
Love them all, for graciously
God has given them to you.

—JANE POMEROY.

THE SUN

The sun must be a glamour girl
With gorgeous red-gold hair,
But though she rides the skies all day
Her glory is not there.
For in the hour of tranquil noon
She hides from me her face
In brightness so intense and great
I cannot pierce her place.
But when the night is drawing nigh,
She calls me to her side
And holds me there, enchanted,
As I would ever hide.
Or in the hour of miracles
That men have called sunrise
She shows her lovely face to me
Before my dazzled eyes.
Sometimes she wears a blue mist
gown
Or maybe purple gay,
Or yellow, pink—I do not care
I love her just that way.

—GENEVIEVE WARNER.

MOONBEAMS

Silvery pale with wings of gauze,
Dewy feet that do not pause,
A fluff of hair
That's made to snare
Some dream that's wandered from its lair.

—JANE POMEROY.

BRIGHT SAYINGS OF OUR BRIGHT (?) SENIORS

Cynthia Davis—"The law allowing one wife is monotony."

Betty Barney—"Wind is air in a hurry."

Clifford Wert—"The liver is the infernal organ of the body."

Bill Bigler—"He had nothing left to live for but to die."

Tom Yoder—"The heart is on the west side of the body."

Don Yoder—"An abstract noun is something we can't see, when we're looking at it."

Alys Salisbury—"The modern name for Gaul is vinegar."

Genevieve Warner—"Gender shows whether a man is masculine, feminine, or neuter."

Richard Weaver (a five E pupil)—"Anatomy is the human body, which consists of three parts, the head, the chist, and the stummick. The head contains the eyes and brains (if any). The chist contains the lungs and a piece of the liver. The stummick is devoted to the bowels, of which there are five, a, e, i, o, and u, and sometimes w and y."*

*This takes the prize. Will the young man please step forward and receive his prize—a one way trip to Alaska by bus sponsored by the Polar Ice Company and the You Auto Try Our Bus Company of Broad Center, Indiana.

O, TEACHER

O teacher, my teacher! Our dreaded test is done,
I've answered every question; my fingers now are numb,
The end is near, the bell I hear; the students all are grumbling.
My time has come, I feel so dumb, I leave the room a-stumbling.

But O teacher! teacher! teacher!
Don't mark my grade in red;
Just heave a sigh,
And pass it by,
And say I have no head.

—ALBERT KOSNOFF (Apologies to Whitman).

CRIMSON SLUGGERS MAKE BIDS FOR GOLDEN GLOVES

Goshen's goofy glove-goslings gallop gayly and gamely to gall Golden Gloves galaxy.

The Tomahawk Charities, Inc., conducted their sixty-eighth annual Golden Gloves Preparatory Tournament at the Tooothing Ring last night. Sixty-seven boxers showed their skill before a huge crowd of (reports differ) from thirteen to three hundred.

Four game Goshen boys came through this preparatory tournament and will advance to the Golden Gloves finals at Dog Patch, February 30.

The "Baron", our battling barbarian and bribing beauty, will brave Babe Barretti in the one hundred forty-seven pound class division. His motto is: "Beat the brawny Babe from Bannersown—or bust!"

"Slug" Kosnoff, our syncopating sleuth from Super-Sales Co., several times surprised the South Side Supporters by stopping Sammy Sox of the one hundred thirty-five pound class.

"Wop" Ulery, our "wow" from Willowby—Willows and Willowby, who works wonders from willows—will wallop Willie Williams of Wilson Wallow.

"Dead Eye" Bigler, our dashing, dancing dude of the Deluxe Daily Delivery Co., will deliver deadly damage to Dave Davinski, the dense, dizzy duke from Denver Dale.

FAMILIAR FACES

and

PLACES

Listen, my children, and
you shall hear
Of the pictures snapped
by our little dears (?)
'Twas many a merry group
did pose
With smiling faces and best Sunday clothes.

Here are Franklin and his two dames.
Just which "one" to choose is the point to the game.

In the center we have three lovely lassies
Who fear neither "pink slips" nor cutting,
(a-hem) classes.

Next are Jean and Tom—
hand in hand.
Oh, Boy! Ain't love
grand!

Now comes four from our
G. H. S. band,
These "tooters" are as good as any in the land.

Last but not least, is a
group quite "elite"
For good times and parties they can't be beat.

THE CLOTHES LINE

Aye, tear her tattered clothes line down!
Long has it waved on high,
And many a boy has blushed to see
What fluttered in the sky;
Beneath it came the cats to bout
And o'er it crows would soar;
That meteor in the rushing breeze
Shall embarrass men no more.

JAMES SIMPSON
(Apologies to Holmes).

SALUTATORY

Friends:

The Class of '38 is very happy to have you with us today to review our high school years and to peer into those ahead.

We have come a long, long journey together. When we started twelve years ago, graduation was too far away to be comprehended. Now we scarcely understand how we have traversed it in so short a time.

Today we "take time out" in this commencement week to remember the little joys and sorrows of our school days, to recall our achievements, to give advice to those who follow us, and to unfold the future. We hope you will enjoy this day with us.

GENEVIEVE WARNER.

ORATION FAITH

Friends:

There is one little word in our English language around which our whole universe is built. That word is "F-A-I-T-H, FAITH."

Your greatest personal asset is the faith you own—faith in your ability to be a useful factor in the work of the world, and faith in the triumph of the right no matter how many times its banners may be trailed in the dust of defeat.

What we are, or what we have achieved during our school days, we do not owe to ourselves alone. It is the faith of our parents and teachers that has brought us to this day, our graduation day.

To have faith in others and help them to live better and happier is to leave a glow of character never to grow dim. Just this simple sentence, "I have faith in you," has lifted many a human spirit. So, as we leave our school days let us keep faith of our forefathers and add to it faith in ourselves, faith in our fellow men, and faith in God.

"Give love, and love to your life will flow
Strength in your utmost need;
Have faith and a score of hearts will show
Their faith in your word and deed.
For life is a mirror of king and slave
'Tis just what we are and do;
Then give to the world the best you have
And the best will come back to you."

DONABELL MINARD.

VALEDICTORY

Friends:

It seems customary on this momentous occasion for the representatives of the graduating class to express a feeling of sadness and regret at the necessity of departing from the scene of their school activities. Now, as the time draws near when our own class must disband and bid farewell to G. H. S., we, too, have fleeting recollections of the various incidents—pleasant, exciting, embarrassing, triumphant—which have composed our life for the past four years.

Our primary thoughts, however, are not of the past, but of the future. We feel that this is an occasion for joyous, eager anticipation of the unknown that lies ahead, rather than of vain regret for that which is behind. We realize that the time has come when each of us must map his own course on the way of life. The group with whom we have been traveling—confident with the strength of numbers and piloted by the wisdom of more mature minds—must now disband. While working together we have tested our knowledge and abilities in many different fields of activity, but now we must decide individually along what lines of endeavor we are best fitted and can best serve our fellow men.

It is, then, not with the conceited misconception that we "have the world by the tail," but with a strong determination to live up to the high standards set by previous graduating classes, and with the most sincere gratitude to all those who have helped to prepare us for this undertaking, we, the class of '38 bid farewell to G. H. S.
